

INSTITUTE FOR THE ADVANCEMENT OF PHILOSOPHY FOR CHILDREN

summer residential WORKSHOP

St. Marguerite's Retreat House
Mendham, NJ, August 3-10, 2013

This workshop is geared toward both novice and experienced graduate students, teachers, professors and others from around the world who have interest or experience in using the Philosophy for Children curriculum and methodology.

In this workshop participants will experience and practice facilitating a "Community of Philosophical Inquiry" with adults, cultivate a "philosophical ear" by learning to recognize philosophical dimensions of experience and philosophical issues in texts, enhance their awareness of effective dialogic practices through the use of various forms of assessment and practice using Philosophy for Children curriculum materials. Time will also be dedicated to exploring some of the theoretical dimensions of Philosophy for Children, community of inquiry pedagogy, and philosophical curriculum construction.

<http://cehs.montclair.edu/academic/iapc>

workshop costs

Room, board and cost of instruction is $1,200.00 USD. ($175 / day for visitors)

workshop registration

To receive a letter of invitation for the workshop please send a letter (on university or school letterhead if you work at a school or university) to the IAPC describing your educational background, your interest in Philosophy for Children and any plans for implementation of the program.

LETTERS CAN BE EMAILED, MAILED OR FAXED TO:

Joe Oyler, IAPC
Montclair State University
Montclair, NJ 07043

oylerj@mail.montclair.edu
Phone: 973-655-4278
Fax: 973-655-7776